Description

A beautiful brass framed billiard light by Thurston of London circa 1870.

Extremely elegant design, with high quality castings which look like they may have been gilded.

the brass has aged to a wonderful dark bronze colour.

Originally supplied to Murthly Castle.

Currently unrestored, the price includes minimal restoration.

We take great care to ensure that the original patina is not cleaned or removed.

New silk shades can be made to order, illustrated with sample silk shades.

We are able to re-wire and provide a PAT certificate
