Description

A full size 12ft x 6ft mahogany snooker or billiard table standing on eight massive lobed and turned legs,the panelled side frames are embellished with gadrooned mouldings, fan shape carvings and corbel brackets.

The intricate cushion friezes compliment the frame and the table is fitted with patent Eureka steel Vacuum Cushions.

Burroughes & Watts named this table "The Albermarle" , it was designed and supplied to the Jockey Club in Buenos Aires.

The original makers plaque is fitted to the end of the table, which was made by The "Original Burroughes & Watts Co" of London, it has no association with the company who currently trade under the same name which is merely a purchased title , the original company ceased trading in 1967.

The table is in excellent condition, the cushion rubbers have been replaced with NR professional rubbers, the cloth used to cover the bed and cushions is English "Strachan" wool cloth as used by The World Snooker Association.

As Specialists we are able to offer a delivery and installation of this wonderful table, a quote can be supplied upon request.
