Description

An oak framed Billiards ,Snooker & Life pool combination scoring cabinet by Thurston.

Made circa 1860 the pierced top of Gothic form adorns this scoring cabinet which is completely original.

A central slate section with engraved "Fleur de Lis" is flanked by lettered Life Pool sliding panels which reveal mother of pearl inlay and box wood ebony stars.

The makers original tablet "Thurston & Co London and Manchester" is in perfect condition.

Two revolving number bars with original pointers sit above symmetrical ball storage cupboards and a central drawer which is used for the retrieval of 'stake money'.
