Description

Antique billiard snooker table

A full size Solid oak billiard table of Arts & Crafts reformed style, circa 1875 by renowned London manufacturers "Burroughes & Watts", standing on eight elegant capital turned legs with applied patrae panels, retaining original makers plaque. We can arrange for installation by our own qualified fitters, a quote can be supplied if required, the table disassembles into many components for shipping. The table has been sympathetically restored by hand and retains much character, we have refurbished the cushion rubber with NR professional rubber and fitted traditional Strachan English cloth to the bed and cushions.
